2021 HOWELL MOUNTAIN CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Aromas of ripe blackberry and black cherry are accented with a hint of camphor-like spiciness from the Ponderosa pine forests that surround our Howell Mountain vineyard. Mountain-grown at 2000 feet elevation in volcanic geology, the structural components of pleasantly gripping tannin and healthy natural acidity coat the palate and resolve evenly with lingering ripe flavors. Bottle ageability can be measured in decades. Each taste will beckon another.

The best of the best, Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon is a true Cabernet-lover's treasure.

The late ripening and longer hang-time of Mountain fruit produces fully ripe wines with balanced acidity, soft tannins and a rich mid-palate that are associated with thoroughly ripe black-cherry Cabernet.

This estate wine is single-vineyard fruit grown at 2,000 foot elevation on our property near the summit of Howell Mountain – mostly Clone 7 and Clone 4 Cabernet Sauvignon vines planted in the 1990s and some planted in the 2010s. Vineyard Manager Hector Lopez's exceptional skills consistently produce the best fruit I have ever worked with. Though production of our Howell Mountain Cabernet is limited, it is my favorite wine, bar none.
